Présentation

The Online Diploma in Legal Studies is a distance learning version of the  Diploma in Legal Studies, university law degree (diplôme d'université) taught in English at the Grenoble Law School.

It offers a substantive knowledge and legal skills in the main fields of French Law (French Public Law, French Private Law), in History of Law as well as in European Law, International Law and Comparative law.

If you want to:

- Acquire skills in French Law
- Acquire or develop skills in the fields of European Law, International Law with a particular focus on French academic perspectives
- Acquire and develop skills in Comparative Law
- Develop your English skills in the field of Law

And if you need flexibility in your learning programme because:

- You are enrolled in an academic programme at your home university
- You are entered in the professional world
- You are unable to consider a move to France

The DU "Online Diploma in Legal Studies" is an opportunity to study at your own pace and realise your project.
