

University degree of French studies B2 (DUEF)

Presentation

DUEF B2 courses are intended for foreign students of B2 level and wishing to deepen their language skills while enriching their cultural knowledge.

Students enrolled in the DUEF obtain a university degree in French studies if they pass as well as the transcript of the exam. A certificate indicating the marks obtained as well as the level acquired from the CERCL is given to each student at the end of the semester.

The objectives are as follows :

- Improve the mastery of the spoken and written language
- Deepen specific knowledge in various specialty areas
- Targeted skills: written and oral skills, reception, production and interaction

Further studies

Students who have obtained the DUEF B2 can apply, without taking the DELF or DALF, for university courses offered by the UGA and the French universities that are members of ADCUEFE.
