Through the diversity of the programs that it offers, the Master's in Finance gives all students the chance to fulfil their potential and acquire the knowledge and professional skills they will need in their chosen profession in the finance and banking sector

Presentation

The reputation of the master's in Finance needs no further proof than its students' very high rate of professional placement (higher than 90% one year after graduation). It is recognised by national evaluations (programme evaluated A+ by the High Council for Evaluation of Research and Higher Education, HCERES), as well as by any number of partnerships forged with firms from the finance sector.

The first year of the master's in Finance can be taken, under the same conditions, at the Grenoble or Valence site, as initial training or continuing education (with no adjustment to the timetables). The four second-year programmes are based at the INP at both sites:

- Advances in finance and accounting - initial training in Grenoble
- Banking and Finance - sandwich training in Valence

In two years, the master's in Finance at Grenoble IAE sets out to train very high level executives working in financial firms and institutions. This high quality training is recognised nationally for the quality of the teaching given.

Skills

The foundation of skills common to students of the Master of Finance brings together the following points: advanced knowledge in finance, accounting, management control and law, professional skills in English and other living languages, a mastery of the computer tool and specialized software, the ability to formulate a professional project, to seek an internship, then a job and to fit into a professional framework, the ability to take initiatives
